About This Game

In this game, you need to color each tile of the puzzle with the correct hue following hints for lines or neighboring tiles. The task can be quite challenging, but nonetheless recompensating and fun.

The clues give small details about how many tiles exist and in what formation they are. Step by step the board will be completed and new clues discovered, enabling to progress in the puzzle to finally solve it. Simple and addictive gameplay, perfect for a puzzling experience.

This game offers:

- Hundreds of puzzles.
- No guesses, complete any puzzle – even the hardest ones – using only logic.

- Color blind mode.

- Each puzzle individually crafted to guarantee the best placements of clues and colors to maximize the enjoyment.

- Offers plenty of keyboard commands to improve and facilitate the gameplay.

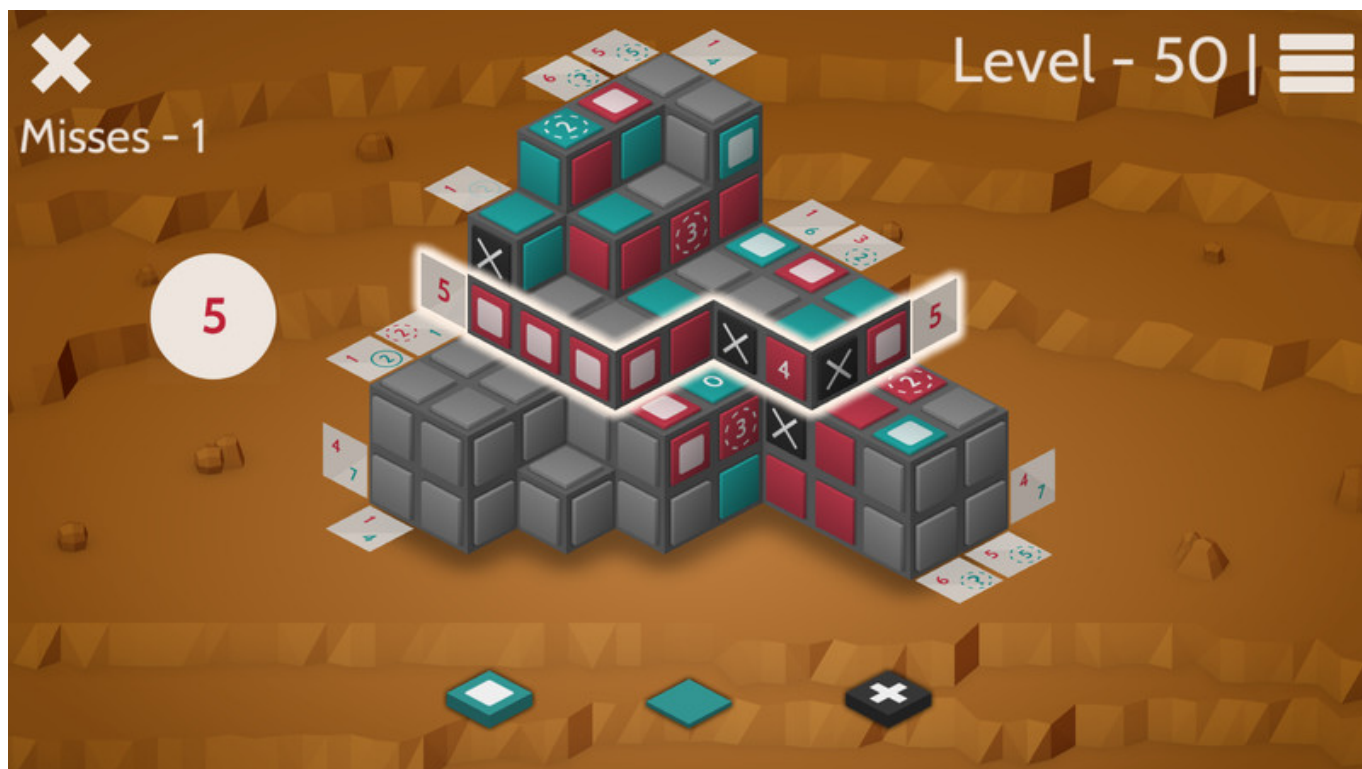

Based on the "Y" mode from "Puzzles By Axis", but all puzzles are new and with more features, types of clues and interface.

Absolutely GREAT!. The logic you have to use is very reminiscent of Hexcells, so if you enjoyed that one, you will probably like this game as well. Initially it feels like you have to make some guesses to get to the solution, but then you realize that every solution can be 100% deduced from the clues that are provided. Very enjoyable and relaxing game..
